

In Luke 24: 32, 'They said to each other, "Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us in the road, while He opened to us the Scriptures?"' What set their hearts ablaze and captured their affections was the interpretation of Scripture, which placed Jesus and His finished work on the cross at the forefront of their minds.

As Christians we should have a burning desire for our hearts to be set on fire again. Jesus needs to be at the front and centre of our lives, through scripture and worship. In John 3:30 says, "He must increase, but I must decrease."

The desire to be filled with more of God also means there is a place in us which needs Him. We recognise the condition of ourselves and how we need so much more to be transformed into being more Christ-like, because without Him we have nothing. Our Heavenly Father is the only one who can truly satisfy all that our hearts long for. He is everything.

Just one glimpse at who He is, just one more thought to understand His character greater, just one more taste of His goodness only causes my hunger for more of Him to increase in me. Jesus said in Matthew 5:6, "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled." When we hunger, desire, thirst for more of God and to be filled - God satisfies. Psalm 107:9 states, "For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul with good things"

This is a daily battle for us as our nature is to be too self focused. But we have a God who recognised our failures and sent us a Saviour to bring us closer to Him. Our sinful nature as well as God-given grace is captured in Matt Maher's song Lord I need You:

'When sin runs deep, Your grace is more,
Where grace is found is where You are
And where You are Lord, I am free,
Holiness is Christ in me.'

Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast,
Immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, knowing that in the Lord your labour is not in vain

All For Jesus

In Luke 24, we read the story of Jesus on the road to Emmaus, where He drew near to two men who recounted the events of the crucifixion and their loss of hope, as their eyes were kept from recognising Him. It wasn't until later that evening, when Jesus broke bread before them, did the disciples recognise Him.
